Mission Statement

Guided by the words of Paul C. Ransom, Ransom Everglades School seeks to produce graduates who “believe that they are in the world not so much for what they can get out of it as for what they can put into it.”

The mission of Ransom Everglades School is to provide an educational environment in which the pursuit of honor, academic excellence and intellectual growth is complemented by concern for the physical, cultural and character development of each student. The School provides rigorous college preparation that promotes the student’s sense of identity, community, personal integrity and values for a productive and satisfying life, and prepares the student to lead and to contribute to society.

LETTER FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

Dear Ransom Everglades Community,

A thank you seems insufficient. My first year as Head of School at Ransom Everglades exceeded all expectations. You welcomed. You invited. You showed up. You volunteered. You contributed. You gave in so many ways, including financially, and I am grateful for all of it.

I want you to know how much your extraordinary generosity means. You allow us to excel and prosper, and you push us to aspire to even greater achievements. In the last year, our students and faculty shined even as our vision for the future expanded. I cannot think of a more exciting place to be entering 2016.

Please come with me for a moment as we take a quick look back, and then turn our focus forward.

In the last year, 16 students won recognition as National Merit Finalists and 10 as National Hispanic Scholars. Every one of our 2015 graduates went on to four-year colleges or universities. Through experiential learning opportunities, students traveled to China, Haiti, Iceland, Ireland, England and other countries. Our freshmen journeyed deep into the Everglades, testing themselves, relying on one another and learning a deep respect for nature.

We entered into a partnership with Global Online Academy to offer a range of innovative and challenging courses to juniors and seniors, including Global Health; Bioethics; Filmmaking; Genocide and Human Rights; and Music Theory and Digital Composition.

We continue to build our connection to the diverse community around us; more than 20 extra-curricular clubs devote their efforts to public service, and all of our sports teams incorporate service into their training schedules. More than 90 percent of our student body plays at least one sport, and 80 percent participate in the arts. Our athletic program was named the best for Class 5A-1A schools in 2014-2015 for the second straight year by the Miami Herald.

Because of your gifts, we have no inclination to rest. At a board retreat last June, we laid out a strategic plan designed to extend and enhance the century-old tradition of excellence that started with founder Paul C. Ransom. We focused on six initiatives that we believe will allow us to continue to prepare our students to become societal leaders, global stewards and active public servants.

We aim to enhance the curriculum; hire, train and retain an eminent faculty; more fully integrate technology; improve facilities and spaces – particularly on the Ransom campus; communicate better to the RE community and world outside; and develop the school as an institution.

All of these initiatives, we hope, will help Ransom Everglades continue to be a beacon in independent-school education. Thank you for helping our students and graduates flourish, and allowing us to chart a course to an even brighter future.

Stephanie G. Townsend

LETTER FROM BOARD OF TRUSTEES CHAIRMAN

Dear Ransom Everglades Community,

In my first year as the chair of the Ransom Everglades Board of Trustees, I had the tremendous privilege of working with a passionate, smart and determined team. We benefited beyond measure from the support and dedication of a formidable group of parent volunteers. We watched, thrilled, as Head of School Penny Townsend thrived in her first year, making Ransom Everglades better every day. Her relentless work ethic, brilliant mind and limitless enthusiasm motivated all of us.

I'm delighted to report that the terrific energy on campus was matched by unparalleled success in our 2014-2015 Annual Fund. We were amazed by the outpouring of generosity from our alumni, parents, grandparents and RE friends. Your thoughtful gifts helped us reach a historic high – $2.46 million – for the Annual Fund, exceeding the previous year's record total by 15 percent. A remarkable 90 percent of parents contributed with an average gift of nearly $2,000. Nearly one in three alums – another record – gave more than $600 on average.

Perhaps most encouraging has been the philanthropic spirit of our most recent graduates. More than five dozen members of our Young Benefactor Society – alums up to the age of 35 – contributed at least $1,500 each, exceeding $100,000 as a group.

Those gifts allowed us to enhance our academic, arts, technology, and athletic programs, ensuring that RE graduates continue to stand out and make a difference when they enter the world. We supported a financial-aid budget of $4.9 million and a need-blind admissions policy to increase educational opportunities for talented youngsters. Seventeen percent of our student body received financial aid or tuition remission, with an annual grant of over $17,000.

Under Penny's leadership, we inaugurated a comprehensive strategic plan to turn our hopes for a successful future into a reliable blueprint for continued excellence. We on the board of trustees intend to ensure that Ransom Everglades carries on its tradition of leadership; academic, athletic and artistic excellence; environmental stewardship; and community service in the next year – and for decades after.

Eric Mendelson
